Types of financial product advice

There are two types of financial product advice: personal advice and general advice. Personal financial product advice considers your objectives, financial situation and/or needs. General financial product advice does not consider your objectives, financial situation or needs.

We will not provide you with personal financial product advice unless we have expressly agreed in writing with you to do so.

Not all of our staff are qualified to give you financial product advice. Some are authorised only to give general advice or factual information on a limited range of financial products.

Our branch and Contact Centre staff are not authorised to provide you with personal financial product advice. Any information provided by our branch or Contact Centre staff will not consider your particular objectives, financial situation or needs, and a statement of advice will not be provided. Accordingly, you will need to consider the appropriateness of the information provided by our branch and Contact Centre staff having regard to your particular circumstances.

If one of our staff cannot help you or provide you with advice, they will let you know and may refer you to another staff member or service provider.

Who do we act for

We provide the financial products and services described in this FSG under NGM Group's AFSL as part of NGM Group.

When we provide financial services relating to Greater Bank branded financial products issued by Greater Bank (e.g., Greater Bank branded deposit products), we act on our own behalf.

We also distribute (i.e., arrange for the issue of) financial products issued by other third-party product issuers, including issuers of general insurance products. When we do so, we may act on behalf of the other product issuer.

We may also, from time to time, refer you to another service provider. When we do so, it is your choice whether you acquire or otherwise receive any products or services from the other service provider.

We do not guarantee and are not responsible for any products or services you chose to acquire or receive from another product issuer and/or service provider.

Product documents

When we provide a financial service to you, you may receive product documentation, including the terms and conditions relating to a specific product. The terms and conditions for some of the deposit and payment products and services we offer are available on our website at greater.com.au/termsandconditions.

Where required, we may also give you a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) if we offer to arrange for the issue of, or for you to acquire, a general insurance product, a life risk insurance product or a superannuation product. Before deciding about whether to acquire the product, you should carefully read the PDS. The PDS will contain information about the particular product, including the costs, benefits and features. This information will help you to decide whether to acquire the product.

We will not give you a PDS in relation to a basic deposit product or a non-cash payment product related to a basic deposit product.
